April Recap!

What I've done, and what is upcoming.

by Cheeky Charlie on May 1st

Ya'll certainly kept me busy this past month!

I started the month finishing up a tour in Sydney, and then headed back to Halifax where I hosted most of the month. I knew I was in for some fun when that first full week back was full in my schedule before it even started. My dates in Halifax impressed me with unique experiences and lots of chocolates! Recently, at the end of the month, I spent a long weekend with old and new lovers in Charlottetown! I always love my trips to the island and thinking I will be back some time in July..

If you've been over to my website you may have noticed some new additions to my Experience Dates, and clicking on my Wishtender will see that I have updated that platform as well. (One thing that would be really convenient to receive in my current day-to-day life would be the wireless headphones.. These can also be sent to me over on my Amazon Wishlist!)

As always, my onlyfans has been steadily updated, and a new PPV clip was sent out (and very well received) to all inboxes. If you subscribe at a later date, leave an 'xx' in your inbox so I know to send this clip to you!

Finally, some of you may have noticed from my twitter that I have started to study again. I am so appreciative of the people who have supported my goals and assisted in a multitude of ways in helping me prepare for my classes. It has been busy since I started, and I am really loving it this go around!

May Upcoming!

Which ways are you keen to keep up with me?

On the note of my studies..

I will have a few changes in my regular schedule to accommodate my needs for school. My start time when hosting will now begin at noon each day of availability. If you absolutely need a morning time it must be pre-booked about a week in advance. I will not be able to accommodate rearranging my morning otherwise, as I am committing these morning hours to my school work.

This will be approximately the same when I am on tour, but with the time being 24 hours in advance. As my schedule tends to be a little more fluid when I am touring, I can typically accommodate with a bit less time.

I will never be able to accommodate a last minute morning appointment.

To continue, I will be spending some time touring in both Edmonton and Montreal this May!

I was invited to attend ANSWERS Edmonton's Sex Worker Assembly this year! This is my primary reason for being in Edmonton, so booking times will be mainly scheduled around this.

Montreal also has a bit of an ulterior motive, as I booked concert tickets with my friends back in December! I extended my trip to last the weekend, and hope that I can spend it with a few French lovers!
