

Cheeky Charlie January Newsletter

December (& 2023) Recap!

What I've done, and what is upcoming.

by Cheeky Charlie on January 1st

2023 has now come to an end and I need to take a moment to thank all of you who have helped me achieve goals and be successful this year!

This year was a very fulfilling one for me. Even though it already has me in tears again, I am so glad that I am back to studying and working towards my goals! Those of you who have had the opportunity to spend time with me know that I have huge goals that are tedious to work toward, and I am thankful for every booking and onlyfans tip that supports me in this life!

Beyond that, the generosity that I have encountered this year - in tips, gifts, or simply just your kindness - is unmatched!

I was able to take my mum for a long weekend in Toronto, and flew to Montreal more than once to spend time with my sweet nephew!

In this work, I was also able to take in the Edmonton ANSWERS conference surrounding sex worker rights! An amazing few days of meeting other wonderful companions, and continuing to learn and grow!

Add to this all of the lovely dates, dinners, duos.. Etc..

What a year!

This past month has been an exciting one on its own..

On the very first day of December I hosted a 'tip & strip' event on my onlyfans platform! There was a lot of sexy fun had by me and the lovers who were in the room! I would definitely keep an eye on that fan page for more live events like that in the future!

I started the month by unexpectedly traveling to Moncton, and the treatment was so lovely that I imagine I will be back sometime before the summer (have to wait for my school schedule before I will know, but fingers crossed!)

The end of the month also had me on an unexpected tour! I had a client reach out to sponsor my trip to Charlottetown, and just got back in time to put this newsletter together! Of course, my time on the island always seems to include delicious food and company!

In between this work fun, I had a week off to spend with family for the holidays which was just the rejuvenation that I needed! So much food! So many snuggles with the little people! So much good!

My hope is that you have had as lovely a 2023 as I have this year!

January (& 2024) Upcoming!

Which ways are you keen to keep up with me?

I can't believe that we are into 2024 now! That year felt like it flew by!

I have many little plans in mind for the next year that I will need you and your commitment to make work! Keep an eye out my my website and my twitter for a possible:

- Glory Hole event with Sarah Alexxx!

We have been vaguely chatting about hosting this event for “Steak & BJ day” in March! This is a previously hosted and well received event that you wouldn't want to miss!

- Orgy!?!?

Stephanie Mystique and I have been chatting again recently about possibly trying to host this event once more.. This is where I mentioned ‘commitment’ above.. The last time we were trying to plan this event we had plenty of people reach out to ask questions and even say they were interested.. But not enough willing to commit.

I am sure you can understand our need for commitment (including deposit) for this event. If we are going to take the time to gather 5+ other local companions, the space to host, food, condoms.. Etc.. then it only makes sense that we would need this sort of commitment so that we don't end up losing (greatly!) to possible no-shows!

I am so so so so hopeful to make both of these plans happen, and bring this fun to Halifax!

For the current month of January most of my plans cannot be set in stone until I have all the info about my academic commitments.

I am really hopeful that once I know my general schedule for the upcoming school semester that I will be able to plan some time in your cities. As mentioned above, I had two lovely ones at the end of December, and it sparked that part of me that wants to tour again! Besides time off between semesters, this will probably be mainly maritime cities. Reach out to me if you're keen to see me, and especially if you're willing to sponsor my trip (a sure fire way to get me there faster!)

For now, I have set a schedule for myself in Halifax. It could possibly change once I have more info on my commitments, but my Hali lovers remain lucky! I am generally available from 10AM-10PM (any morning MUST be pre-booked or I will not be able to make it work) on the weekdays, and would love to get to know you this year, if I haven't been able to yet!
